

CAROLINA CLINICAL EDUCATION CONSORTIUM

2018 Conference

Save the Date March 9-10, 2018

Hosted by
Campbell University DPT Program
Buies Creek, NC

For more information, visit www.carolinaclined.org.

Workshop Description

Clinical Education is a key component of a successful physical therapist or physical therapist assistant educational program. Our annual conference is designed to provide resources for physical therapy clinicians (PTs and PTAs), clinical partners including clinical instructors and clinical coordinators, as well as academic partners serving as DCE or ACCEs.

Courses and Offerings

Clinical Instructor Education and Credentialing Program - Basic Clinical Instructor Education and Credentialing Program - Advanced

Clinical Education Conference Tracks

Clinical Reasoning (4 one-hour courses)

Clinical Reasoning and Tests
Planning, Strategizing, Assessment, and Treatment
Tools to Improve Clinical Reasoning for Assessment & Treatment
Facilitating Clinical Reasoning in Real-Time

Managing Student Learners (4 one-hour courses)

Methods to Challenge the PT or PTA Student
Student Learning Contracts
Impact of Personality Styles on CI - Student Interactions
Making a Learning Diagnosis

Maximizing Student Learning (2 two-hour courses)

Improving Student Learning by Implementing the Collaborative Teaching Model
Communication Skills for "Generation Tech"

Clinical Practice Updates (4 one-hour courses)

How to Become an Evidence-Based Practitioner: Interpretation of Results & Statistics
Testing Muscle Performance
PT Intervention for Patients with Cancer to Improve Care and Outcomes
Cardiopulmonary Care

Each 4-hour track of related courses is provided by CCEC members and Campbell University DPT faculty.